Code of Conduct Document

Being granted membership of the World Wide Association of Equine Dentistry UK is a privilege.

World Wide Association of Equine Dentistry UK members will abide by a CODE OF CONDUCT in dealing with the animal, its owner, and others associated with the equine industry.

By accepting membership, the member agrees to perform service to the highest standards of skill and workmanship as set out this Association's Standard of Practice. The honor and integrity of the Equine Dentistry profession lies in acceptance of, and adherence to this Code of Conduct. This Code is the foundation of the World Wide Association of Equine Dentistry UK.

1. The principal objective of an equine dentist is to promote the general health and welfare of horses and to render service to the community.
2. The Equine dentist shall render services to a level no less that stated for each procedure outlined in the Standard of Practice.
3. The equine dentist will work continually to improve his/her education, knowledge, and skill.
4. The equine dentist shall uphold the honor and integrity of the profession by conducting a fair, honest, and competent practice.

Horse owners will expect an adherence to these standards from the World Wide Association of Equine Dentistry, Inc. member. Member equine dentists who fail to perform to these standards will be disciplined by the Officers, Directors, and Executive Directors.
